

"Proclaiming the Excellencies of God" (Part 1)

07061Pe2.11(47)

1 Peter 2:11

11 Beloved, I urge you as I urge you as aliens and strangers, to abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul. 12 Keep your behavior excellent among the pagans, so that in whatever they accuse you as evildoers, they may see your good works and glorify God in the day of visitation.

– 1 Peter 2:11-12, As translated from the Greek New Testament by T. Bartolucci.

Introduction

"We are to proclaim God's excellencies by protecting our passions while living with a pure purpose before the persecutions and problems of a pagan planet."

I. Proclaiming the Excellencies of God (vv. 11-12)

A. Proclaiming God's Excellencies By Our Inward Devotion - Preparation (11)

1. Rejoice that you are loved (11a)

a. Agapētoi (ἀγαπητοί) plural Greek word for "beloved"

(1) NIV's "dear friends" misses the mark on two points:

b. The plight of Peter's audience . . .

c. Love is the purest motivator (why is our obedience connected to our love?)

2. Recognize that you are a pilgrim (11b)

a. You are "aliens" and "strangers" on the earth

(1) "Aliens" = paroikos (παροιικος)

(2) "Stangers" = parepidēmos (παρεπιδημος)

"These two words describe a temporary resident of a foreign land who has his eye on going _____."

"We are sojourners, unable to live happily exiled from our fatherland. We seek for a way to help us to end our sorrows and to return to our native country." – Augustine

The word "pilgrim" comes from another word that literally means, "To settle down alongside of pagans."

3. Resist sinful temptations (11c)

- a. Note how these three points stand together . . .
- b. What are "fleshly lusts" (NIV "sinful desires")? See Galatians 5:16-24
- c. Are you fighting or sleeping?
- d. Some keys in winning the battle
 - (1) _____ your spiritual disciplines
 - (2) _____ your Spiritual Resources
 - (3) _____ in the Race
 - (4) _____ yourself in the church
 - (5) _____ sin from God's perspective
 - (6) _____ advantage of godly council and mutual accountability
